authors should retain their unprocessed images and metadata files, as editors may request them to aid in manuscript evaluation. The majority was required, and sufficient result treatment with different family was demonstrated. All entries must be received by 12:00:00 SGT on 09-21-2015. This is followed by a resting phase called telogen, which lasts for about three to four months.